The Introduction

-Let's then to Hamlet!

-We, "END ANIMAL DEATH," are seizing control of this class due to the offhand reference to swine in the first syllable of your last word, Professor!

-Please sit back down, you complete absurdity.

-Well I'd say now that the complete absurdity is the way you sort of dance as the cattle prod goes up your ass! Notice the watering eyes too, Shakespeare-1 Class. Just how do you think the cow feels, hey Professor?

-(inarticulate)

-You seem to object, wholly white and blond student in the first row!

-I don't know. At least I don't think so. I'm just a freshperson and this is my first class. I didn't know, like, what to expect.
